

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
OF NEW MEXICO

Barbara Andersen	)
Plaintiff	)	Case 20-cv- 00553-JFR
v.	)
Forrest Fenn; Unknown Defendant	)

MOTION TO STRIKE DOCKETS 34 THROUGH 36

Barbara Andersen, as her own attorney, hereby respectfully moves to strike dockets 34 and 36.

1. Pleadings were filed by a nonparty at dockets at 34-36. It appears to be an improper effort to intervene.
2. Andersen has no idea who this woman is. She claims that Andersen stole information from her. Andersen barely knows how to use her phone and computer... let alone hack a complete stranger.
3. Andersen is not even claiming that her solve is in this person's search area. This woman is free to press whatever complaints that she has with the FBI against Andersen. It has no relevancy to this litigation. If this woman seeks to file suit against Andersen, she is free to do so.
4. Andersen has been harassed/stalked on a daily basis by complete strangers in a variety of fashions.<sup>1</sup> This is yet another example. Andersen recently blocked a person by the name of Kathryn on her e-mail for strange and harassing e-mails.

Wherefore, Andersen requests that this Court strike dockets 34 through 36 from this record.

<sup>1</sup> Andersen will tell this Court shortly about the media circus created by Shiloh Fenn (who is not even the representative of the estate) on the internet yesterday at a later date. In lieu of attending to her other matters/deadlines, Andersen was inundated with phone calls from media sources due to the estate's/Finder's/Shiloh Fenn's effort to avoid responding to Andersen's subpoena and complying with this Court's order on the subject.
